

Time For Me To Fly!

Now, let's just get one thing out the way...
Yes there are spelling mistakes, I don't need to be sent photos of each of them.

It's been 2 years since the last End Of Season Report, "Like A Rollin' Stone" A nod to Bob Dylan there, see, it isn't just REO Speedwagon that I listen to!

Let's be honest how many of you reading this that have drivers in the Race League also find them listening to awesome bands like REO Speedwagon or The Outfield?

Brentwood isn't just a kart track it's a way of life and REO Speedwagon provides to sound track to it!

These reports are usually around 4000 words, this one is over 5,000, so grab a sandwich or a bottle of wine in the case of some parents.... Beau's mum, Ellis' mum and Mikey's mum AND WITHOUT DOUBT Jack Williamson's nan after the 5,000 words I then upload it to Facebook... It gets two likes!

After a year or so I am hassled "are you going to write another end of season report?" So if this is you... Like, Comment, Share otherwise it'll be another 2 years, at least! 😊

**Sit's crossed legged on the floor****

SKY Channel 147: TRUE CRIME X "Judge Judy" 4pm till 11pm

Open's Pot Noodle

Microsoft Word = End Of Season Report

Sunday's used to last 8am till 3pm and that's it, easy, no stress, A doddle!

Nowadays things have changed, Sunday's never end and they actually start on Mondays usually with 45 WhatsApp messages from parents with videos "Can you explain this, why is it an ABC"

You know who you are!

Usually Tate's dad, but he isn't alone!

Ellis Cox's mum!

Usually 25 messages, all without response, she's pretty much having a conversation with herself at this point, firmly putting her point across about what she thinks of the marshals, and I'll be honest, it isn't positive with Ellis' mum.

I do give her the benefit of the doubt, clearly, she's had a "heavy" night and her mornings start with a WhatsApp to me...

It's didn't take me to long into this report to start bullying Jodie ☺

Next messages are usually Jude's mum, followed quickly by Jude's dad...

Next message: Lucy, Jack Williamson's mum, she's already done all the points and wants to check that mine match it's like being back in school.

Then the messages regular messages start
"Aiden for Thursday: 6pm Session Please"

Come on!

Most of you won't even be booked in at all, so the chances of being in a specific session are pretty much impossible.

Other enjoyable reads include

"Ronnie for Sunday, but NOT for The AllStar Cup, we DO NOT want to be in the All Star Cup"

Followed swiftly by...

"Can you book Ronnie into the Allstar Cup"

Some of my favourite messages appear straight after I "publish" the groups from Thursday's Advanced Sessions

"Dan, Zack I'm missing"

Of course this means they are missed from the groups, but I am of obviously going to be sarcastic and respond with "Where did you see Zack last, I hope he's found"

You see what started as a Sunday morning job running The Race League has become a juggernaut, and then we have the actual Sunday's

Borat Margaret Sagdiyev

Ah, For God Sake!

It's like 8:05am and Harry Search is already here, his dad's backed the van up so close to the viewing area he's almost in it.

Mum's pacing round the picnic benches marking out her territory like she is in the US Marines and Nan's walked into the pitlane,

“Dan, have you seen Harry's trophies he won last weekend”

It's Sunday morning again.....

I CAN HEAR THE DISTANT SOUND OF THE IMPERIAL MARCH

**Harley's dad enters the chat*****

I can see him walking over like a mini Daft Vader...

Phone in hand, he's flicking through the laptimes from last week.

“Dan, I hope you have fixed kart 32, it was slow 6 weeks ago”

I can't see him, but I can hear him Vinnie Cunningham has arrived!

Now I'll review the top 10 of each Championship and add a few “Honourable Mentions”

Let's start with the Honourable mentions.

Clubman Champion Vinnie Cunningham's awesome season will be rewarded with a place in the upcoming Cadet Super League Championship, a great season for Vinnie saw him often running at the front, winning races and basically being a nuisance to the guys at the front! Let's hope for more if this in the Super League Vinnie.

Now, I can't do these mentions with mentioning the Managers' son can I?

“What Group Is Olly in Dan” “It's Monday Simon, I haven't done the groups yet”

“OMG OMG Olly Scored 20 points last week”

“I'm giving no hours to Damo this week, he gave Olly an ABC on Sunday”

“If Olly scores just 103 more point in the next two weeks he'll win the Clubman Championship”

It's safe to say Simon has become a typical Race League Parent!

Olly “REO” McWilliams' dedication to learning all the lyrics some of the bangers from the best band in the world, REO Speedwagon

Time For Me To Fly

Keep On Loving You

I Can't fight this feeling anymore

Olly knows all the lyrics and I know full well even dad is forced to add REO Speedwagon music to Olly's social media posts, Oh and he's getting much better in a kart also!

Cheeky Chappy, Frankie Dole and 7ft Pierce I'm sure will be having great seasons next season as both will be racing in the Senior Championship where the kart will be much better suited towards them both.

The Top 10

Harry Search and Driver of the year 2023 Alfie Slattery rounded out the top 10 for Championship, knowing 9th place Alfie Slattery AKA "Slavery", he is going to want to be a few places higher in the upcoming Super Cadet League.

Some great results for Alfie such as his runners up position for round 3 and 6 of the Championship but the all important 1st place alluded him this season.

10th place Harry massively improved season saw him grab 10th place like it was his favourite Granny.

Harry stole the round 9 win of the Championship with a brilliant performance maximum points and the fastest lap! Three missed rounds prevented Harry from moving further up the Championship table, I'm sure we'll see Harry more often next season taking part in the Championship with real rewards ☺

Part time racing driver, full time lawnmower!

"Shake & Bake"

Ricky Bobby

In 8th place we find....

The awesome Henry Greenwood!

Henry is an absolute animal!

When AllStar Cup Champ Henry isn't putting some kind of controlled substance in his Sunday morning Racing Whetabix, he spends his time globetrotting in climates warmer than our miserable, damp, boring, depressing climate that we have here in the UK, I can't criticise Henry for wanting to experience a temperature above 12 degrees! However, as a result of Henry's travels, his Championship result is affected.

4 missed rounds still resulted in two wins making Henry statistically our most competitive contender, you'll have to look at 16th place to find the next driver who has missed 4 rounds so an 8th place for Henry is seriously impressive! Let's hope for a full campaign next season for Henry, maybe he can add a Championship title to his AllStar Cup title next season.,

Zack “Tikka Tikka Timing” Mumba grabbed the win on round 4 of the championship, but he’ll be looking to secure plenty more next season now that he is confirmed as a Hollywood actor, I’ll be sure to grab Zack’s autograph before his blockbuster movie is released!

Zack “Hollywood” Mumba is another one who won’t take less than a podium position next season or maybe even a championship fight, a few more consistent high scores will give Zack a strong foundation for his championship assault as he’ll look to be one of the few drivers able to go Duck Hunting.

I reckon Harley Drury is so small his house doesn’t have laminate flooring through fear he’ll fall through the cracks and be lost forever.

I reckon Harley will be asked for ID until he’s in his 30’s

I reckon during windy days Harley has to be tethered like a bouncy castle to prevent him from being found in the neighbours garden.

However, what Harley lacks in height he makes up for in sheer karting ability!

Harley, this season’s Most Improved Driver, became “a problem” a problem to the contenders at the front of the championship as he began scoring championship winning points on a more consistent basis.

Harley will be looking for a podium position at the end of next season and finally secure his first round win, he came pretty close this season with a 2nd place overall finish in round 4.

“Can We Go Home Yet”

Suns Out, Gingers IN!

Everyone’s favourite Ginger, Sam “Mick Hucknall” Morse has only been racing at Brentwood for 5 minutes and already finds himself fighting for a podium position like some kind of Ginger Super Hero!

Sam “Ginger Spice” Morse’s awesome season saw him match The Duck and Henry Greenwood with two round wins throughout the season and the impressive BFG title “Brentwood’s Fastest Ginger” I’ll stop insulting Sam’s hair now and focus on his karting talent.

Sam’s 275 points this season was good enough for 5th place and just 13 points away from a 2nd place finish. A championship challenge is now on the cards for Sam next season as we approach the summer season where Sam will be embracing the ginger gene with style and sass!

IT'S TIIIIIMEEE!!!!

In the Red corner we find, Mr Half Pint, the 3ft tall, so slightly taller than Harley Drury, Jack Thompson! Despite being the same size as a 6-month-old Jack is now a Championship heavyweight and always finds himself battling the heavy hitters for the Championship title.

In the Blue corner we find Champion Roman Curtis!
Roman's brilliance doesn't need much introduction, never rule out the champion who will always be fighting at the front.

These two fighters were 2 of many drivers fighting for the final two podium positions throughout the championship.
Both drivers managed to secure a win throughout the season, with Jack's on round 3 and Roman's on the final round of the Championship.

Both drivers traded blows as the season barrelled on with Jack securing 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th at different points throughout the campaign. Roman arrived fashionably late to the party and pulled out his "Vanessa Williams" Trump Card and "Saved His Best Till Last" winning the final round of the Championship this secured him his podium position at the Championship finale, but it was mighty close with both drivers finishing on 288 points!

"If you can dodge a wrench, you can dodge a ball"

Patches O'Houlihan

Texas "Tex" Tate was freaking amazing this season!

Last season's most improved driver just proved how amazing I am at spotting the following season's biggest talent!

An absolutely brilliant season for "Tennessee" Tate would have secured him with this season's Most Improved Driver had he have now won it last season!

A week win and with two dropped scores both of which in the 20-point bracket, better than any other driver in all championships matched only by fellow American, Ellis Cox's impressive Senior Championship.

Tate was the victor in the season long fight for the runners up spot in the Cadet Championship as rivals fought valiantly but were tossed aside by Tate like an old discarded, soiled mattress often found abandoned alongside the A127 just outside Dale Farm.

Tate rolled up his sleeves and fought like Donald Trump against his latest criminal proceeding! Probably something to do with hush money!

Can Tate do 1 place better next season?

I am sure There is one driver who thinks not!

“The secret of success is to be alike a duck, smooth and unruffled on top, but paddling furiously underneath”

probably best not to say whose quote this was

While there was a frantic battle for the final two podium positions this season there was one driver who did their very best Max Verstappen impression!

If it walks like a duck and quacks like a Duck, It's Jude!

This season's champion is once again Jude “The Duck” Puddefoot!

A drivers whose refusal to lose sets him apart from the rest of the field.

I Believe It's Time for Me To Fly

Huge REO Speedwagon Fan and therefore AWESOME person Jude improved on last season's weaknesses and kept his head firmly attached to his duck shoulders this season, smashing the 300 point mark with 309 points and a healthy 21 point lead at the Championships chequered Flag.

“The Mighty Duck” unleashed Angry Beast Mode Duck this season, despite only winning two rounds compared to last season's lots and lots, Jude took the championship lead after 3 rounds and never relinquished control.

That's 4 Championship for Jude now as he enters ELITE level!

The duck will be looking to secure another title to his list as CADET SUPER LEAGUE CHAMPION!

I am sure there will be a few drivers looking to see some delicious Crispy Duck on the summer Barbecue menu!

The Senior Championship

The Top 10

Just rolling in under the closing garage doors and into this report we find the greatly improved Stoijan Andre, consistent point scores throughout the championship saw him finish just ahead of another seriously improved driver, Abi White.

Stoijan finished 17 points behind our 9th place driver.
Stoijan, a rather quiet driver both on and off the track, a bit like 9th place Ronnie Spinny....

Someone who isn't quiet is Ronnie's mum!
JESUS CHRIST!! What a set of lungs!

I can hear Ronnie's mum's Thunder Clapping voice still echoing around the viewing area on a Tuesday!
A good season for Ronnie secures 9th, but he'll want much better next season!

“I used to be lonely’ till I learned about livin’ alone”

Kevin Cronin

Too many missed round from both Matteo Alphabet and Jasper Brian Stewart damaged their championship chances, both challenged for the top spot at the early stages of the Championship before slipping down the order to fill 7th for Brian and 8th for Alphabet.

Brian missed 5 rounds and scored 2 round victories to finish just 2 points ahead of Matteo who missed 4 rounds but scored highly on those he did attend.

Hopefully we'll see them both back next season for a full campaign and a fight for Super League contention.

The only Kiwi in Brentwood, Josh Greaves filled 6th place this season and Riley Hinton 5th, like those behind them in the Championship these two drivers also missed a couple rounds each which again damaged any real championship fight, but a good season kept both in and around the top 5 places throughout the season. Josh will be looking for a podium next season and Riley, whose first season in the season secured an impressive top 5 place, 20 points ahead of Joshua.

Oh-oh, here she comes, watch out, boy, she'll chew you up!

Not since the days of Daisy Hart racing in the Championship have I used these lyrics in a Race Report, but Anya Barrett deserves them!

Another fine season from Anya scores 4th!

She actually finished the season tied on points with 5th place Riley but the faster laps secure the higher placement.

Anya "Man-Eater" Barrett went on a rampage towards the end of the season like PacMan on steroids!

Winning 2 of the last 3 rounds and 3 of the last 6 as she threw herself up the Championship like

Bruce Jenner in his Discus days, what ever happened to him?

Moving On...

A fine season from Anya and an even better AllStar Cup where she placed not only as fastest female, but also as best placed senior driver this means she'll be returning to the Super League,

"This lady IS for turning" You might not get that reference, ask your nan!

"Bigly"

Donald Trump

Being an absolute saint, I of course, don't have favourites...

But if I did, it would be Robert Crawford!

Robert's fine season saw him always fighting at the front and always looking like a podium contender.

"The Gentleman" Robert's Ace season collected 3rd place overall and a seat at the Super League Table, I hope he's not expecting a civilised meal!

Robert's two round wins were scored on round 2, giving him the awesome title of B Plate Champion and another win followed on round 9 of the Championship.

I am looking forward to seeing Robert in the Super League Championship, but will he continue to be a Gentleman, or, "how do I say this politely" or, will he become another pain in the arse!

The Championship saw two drivers fighting like two drunk ladies outside TOTS in Southend on a typical Saturday night, both having drunk too much, both fighting over the same "boyfriend" struggling to stand before rolling around on the floor, handbags spilling over the pavement, cars having to stop as the ruckus spills out into the road, clumps of hair in each other's hands....

I think that's enough of a description... Ellis "The American" Cox and Will "The Yo-Yo" Flack fought for the top stop all season long!

Despite always heading the field both drivers scored less wins than the drivers in 3rd and 4th, only managing one win each, Ellis' win came on round 5 and Will's on round 6.

Ellis had an awesome first season in the Senior Championship having previously been in the Cadet Championship, I know if you were to ask his mum, who I can only imagine read the TOTs introduction and reminisced about the fun she had just last weekend.

Ellis' mum would say that he had a bad season, but in reality, Ellis was great!
An awesome season and straight to the Super League for the Pit viper wearing, Leopard Print Mullet King!

Will "The Yo-Yo" Flack Senior Champion!

Will's great season is rewarded with a return to the Super League, a League he is all too familiar with having been in and out of the Super League almost as much as he is in and out of the pitlane during each heat looking for a kart change!

Will had a fine season, two poor rounds scoring just 9 and 13 points means he could never relax considering Ellis' dropped scores were 20 and 21 meaning one slip up and he'd lose his championship lead, regardless, a great season for Will.

Now will he stay in the Super League or live up to the Yo-Yo name and make a stunning return to the Senior Championship after next season?

Let's find out!

The Super League

It's difficult to only mention the top 10 in the Super League with talent in all 28 positions, here are a few Honourable Mentions

Rory "Miley Cyrus" O'Regan, one of the most frustrating drivers to grace Brentwood!

Mr Win or Bin

Rory has more wins in 2024 than any other driver, his awesome karting ability is match only by his ability to self-destruct! This resulted in a 14th place, Rory did have a re-set this season to ensure he's ready for a Championship Challenge next season and he's the only driver in all the Leagues here to make sure he gets no benefit being the only driver to request to be a seeded driver to ensure he gets the harsh penalties applied to seeded drivers in the Super League.

Can Rory take the Championship this season? I wouldn't bet against him and I am looking forward to editing Rory's crash helmet onto pictures of Miley Cyrus throughout the upcoming Super League Championship.

"I don't know how to put this, but I'm kind of a big deal"

Ron Burgundy

Mikey Brisenden grabbed his first ever Super League round victory for round 7 with maximum points, but several missed weeks is suicide in the Super League, his result was 15th this season.

I am sure of some more impressive result in the Summer season and hopefully some more round wins! More wins will give his mum an excuse to drink the several bottles of Southern Comfort she keeps in the car and tries to hide from everyone.

Tammy, the only person who becomes a fully-fledged barwoman every week, with bottles of Southern Comfort, kept in the in-car chiller of course!

Chilled cans of Diet Coke, Wine Glasses WITH ICE and even a glass sock thingy to keep the glass chilled while she holds it....

But, please don't tell anyone, it's a secret!

After reading this I now expect Ellis Cox's mum to be a regular visitor to the "Brisenden Porsche Bar" having to be pulled away each week by Teddy, "Come On mum, its 8pm we need to go home"

It's also worth mentioning Liam O'Sullivan's awesome season, but 4 missed rounds forced the double round winner further down the order than he deserved in 11th place.

A much improve season from the likes of Carrot Boy Alfie Miles, Michael "Taylor" Swift and Matthew Abery. Michael filled 13th this season and I'm sure will go even more places ahead at the end of this season if he can start the new season as he did this season.

Matthew and Jasper Carrot are both now established Super League drivers having survived the cut this season and scored some great results to keep them well clear of the drop zone, top 10's next season perhaps?

So, let's go!

Just 6 points separated 9th and 10th places in the Super League this season with Troy sitting pretty in 10th, he'll be wanting more rounds next season like his result in round 8: 21 points was Troy's highest scoring round of the season as he and Ethan Saunders spent most of the season in close proximity. Ethan Saunders' missed rounds is the reason he finds himself in 9th rather than comfortably inside the top 5, some impressive scoring rounds like that in rounds 4, 5, 6 and 7 which saw him go on a run of great results and a run up the Championship table after a rocky start and an even more rocky ending with three missed rounds 😞

7 points ahead of Ethan and another driver missing rounds, 3 rounds in total we find former Super League and AllStar Cup Champion Trent "Leslie" Moroney.

Dare I say that Trent hasn't won a single round since winning the Super League and AllStar Cup on the same day... Ouch!

I'm sure Trent will break his 2024 duck in the upcoming season, hopefully we'll see another championship challenge from Brentwood's Rapid South African!

Trent stayed under the radar for most the season, occasionally raising his head above the trenches on rounds 1 and 6 with some impressive results, missed rounds were due to the usual Trent like activities such as finishing 19th in a lawnmower somewhere around the country oh, and joining the other Brentwood boy's in smashing the Buckmore's, and I use this world loosely....."talent" at their own circuit!

That's Kief!

Just ahead of Trent in 7th is our very own chief suit hanger-upper Ben Yiangou!

Over the past 2 seasons Ben has really gone through the gears and is now a real threat for the overall podium and even Championship title challenge! But...

Too many missed rounds for boring reasons stopped Ben's open goal for a podium challenge this season, hopefully for the upcoming championship we'll see Ben here for all 12 weeks and a championship challenge, we can all hope, can't we....

Ben smashed everyone on round 8 of the Championship with his one and only win of the season, more awesome performances were also scored by Ben on rounds 5 and 10 with podium finishes.

The Most Improved Driver this season is 6th placed Leon Curtis, 31 points and 7 places better of than last seasons Super League Championship, Leon was oh so close to his first Super League win of the season on round 11 as he finished the Championship of in fine form.

Leon was one of two stand out drivers in the Super League this season, ruffling feathers and upsetting the Super League heavy hitters until he became one of them himself!

Leon scored 184 points this season just 2 points behind 5th place Sam Masters!

“I just want one more drink!”

Jack's Nan

Sam, again had a great season and it was he who won round 11 when Leon just missed out, it was also the difference in points on this round that secured 5th for Sam and 6th for Leon.

Sam will be back next season and needs to be aiming for a podium position at the end of the season or perhaps even a championship challenge, Sam has the talent and the attitude to race everyone with the same force!

Sam grabbed the fastest lap of the Super League season and despite a 0 score and a missed round Sam remained in and around the top positions throughout the Championship.

I am looking forward to a Championship challenge throughout the summer.

Hosting 4th place this season is “Roast Beef” Beau Sullivan.

Our World Champion and Number 1 REO Speedwagon Fan, to be honest is probably happier to be 4th than he would be if he was holding the runners up position this season.

Beau is always EPIC and absolutely always in championship contention and it was no difference this season, a few rocky rounds towards the end of the season and missing round 11 of the Championship to dominate the 24-Hour Endurance at Buckmore Park (Something Brentwood Drivers do EACH AND EVERY year) saw the Championship and the podium evade Beau this season.

I reckon if you were to add the last 5 Super League Championships together as 1 Championship you would see Bootleggin' Beau as the most consistent and highest scoring Championship winning driver.

I hope to see Beau back for a FULL assault on the Championship next season and no one would be happier to see him lift his Championship title than myself.

You Gotta Roll With The Changes!

What the F&*K are you doing there!
Alex Flipping Grace!

Who?

F$%*ing Alex Grace!

Alex Grace, the guy who's first time ever at Brentwood saw him arrive with half his face missing, he's clearly better at karting than he is at rugby!

Alex Grace was this seasons Madonna! As he got into the Groove, as the stand out driver!

A blinding Season from Alex Grace was topped off with an epic performance on round 12th to catapult up the order and into the final podium position on the final round and just 2 points away from a 2nd place finish.

Unlike 1st, 2nd, 4th 5th and 6th Alex Grace didn't even grab a victory all season, but quietly hammered home some impressive consistence scores all season long to perform the perfect robbery that even Ronnie Biggs would raise a glass too as he stole a podium place from right under everyone's nose without even been noticed.

A fantastic season for Alex Grace!

Our Super League Championship Runner-Up is last seasons Champion, the Awesome Sam May!
You can never count out Sam May and this season proved that.

Sam led the majority of the season with some early impressive scores and the round 3 victory.

Sam went on to grab his second and final victory of the season on round 6 at the half way point of the Championship to cement his early championship lead. A missed round on round 11 and a couple hiccups towards the end of the season left the door-ajar for some late competition as the Championship neared its conclusion and Sam's lead started to crack!

Overall another great season from our Champion Sam, but the missed round 11 let squatter in and that squatter was....

The FIVE TIME Super League Champion: Jack Williamson

Jack's ability to drag a result from ANY kart and ANY situation he finds himself in won him this seasons championship!

Despite not winning a round for over 7 months until he finally won on the final round of the Championship! Like Beau, Jack is always in the hot stuff at the top of the Championship and this season was no different 4 final rounds of the Championship turned the tide in Jack's favour where he outscored his competitions by scoring over 100% more points than his challengers.

Jack is Mr Super League and now with 5 titles Jack will be in top form to make it 6 next seasons as the competition restarts.

Good scores on rounds 2, 4, 6, 9, 11 and his win on round 12 secured Jack his title with what ended up being a huge margin of 23 points, the same margin separated the top 4 last season and coincidentally it was Jack in 4th

Well, that's it 5,500 words of wasted time which will be read by 4 people before being ignored and lost in a dusty corner of the Facebook world, a few years from now it'll be picked up and again and re-read

"Jesus, whoever wrote this can't spell"

The positives however are I watched many hours of Judge Judy shouting at American's calling them idiots and making them look foolish on TV. I've listened to the entire REO Speedwagon 'Good Trouble' album and found another ROCKET of a song "I'll Follow You" I am looking forward to seeing which driver adds this song to an Instagram story to confirm they have read the entire report.

Congratulations if you have managed to read ALL of this report you are a true Race League anorak!

I'm going to try and drag out the "conclusion" of the report, Damo has asked if once finished I can give them a hand marshalling on circuit, currently we have 12 8-year olds bouncing off the barriers like amateur bowlers bowling with the "baby barriers" raised, I am in no rush.
